AMIS BILL PASSES LOWER HOUSE AND WILL SHORTLY BECOME A LAW.

Oaklawn Meeting May End This Week—
"Will Abide by the Law," Says

Dan Stuart.

Hot Springs, Ark., February 12.—Simultaneously with the running of the sixth race at Oaklawn today, came news from Little Rock that the Amis anti-betting bill had passed the lower house of the Legislature by a vote of 83 to 8, and now awaits the Governor's signature to become a law. The announcement came as a shock and threw a pall over horsemen and the devotees to racing, who had for the last few days been led to believe that the measure would not be passed in its present form. It was known that a racing law would unquestionably be passed, but it was believed here the measure would be one that would have permitted poolselling on the racetracks.

When the bill was called up for its third reading an effort for delay was made with a motion to refer it back to the Judiciary Committee. This was defeated whereupon Representative Quim, of Garland County, leader of the bill's opposition, started a debate which lasted two hours and resulted in the passage of the measure.

Dan A. Stuart, after he had been informed of the action of the Legislature, was asked for an expression as to the plans of the Oaklawn management. He declined to make any statement other than that he "believes in upholding the law and will do so in this instance." If his partners in the ownership of the track share his views, and they no doubt do, then there is little likelihood that the present meeting will progress much longer.

It is not likely that the signing of the bill will be long delayed. Governor Little is on his way to Texas in quest of health, but President Moore, of the Senate, is acting governor and will affix his signature as soon as the bill is engrossed. The meeting may end Saturday or before. The club has lost money from the first day.

The most exciting contest of this afternoon was in the third race when Kankakee and Woolstartle fought it out nearly the entire trip and came to the finish only noses apart, the verdict going to Kankakee.

Rough riding was primarily responsible for the falling of Miss Jersey, ridden by F. Burton, in the fifth race. Neither horse nor boy was injured.

Mary Talbot took the two-year-old race, but had to be driven to the limit to get the decision from Harty Agnes.

In the fourth race J. D. Dunn ran extra well after standing a long, hard drive. He was in close quarters shortly after the start, but managed to wear down the early leaders and win by a com-

Breeders and Turfmen Arrange Seven Days of Racing at Cumberland Park.

Nashville, Tenn., February 12.—A spring racing meeting of seven days to begin the latter part of April will be held at Cumberland Park. This was decided upon today at a meeting of a number of prominent breeders and turfmen who are interested in the welfare of the sport in this section. There will be a Derby of $2,500, two stakes of $1,500 each and the remainder of the week's program will be made up of $300 purses.

The meeting will not be conducted in violation of the recently enacted law, which prohibits betting. There will be no bookmaking or any other form of gambling allowed, the gentlemen fostering the meeting hoping to derive sufficient revenue from the gate to pay all expenses, amounting to about $12,000.

A subscription will be raised by turfmen and the friends of racing to meet a deficiency, if there should be any. The dates will be sq arranged so as not to conflict with the spring meetings in Kentucky.

JUST ANOTHER LEXINGTON LIE

Nashville, Tenn., February 12.—William Gerst. the local turfman, today wired the sporting editor of the Nashville American from New Orleans that there is absolutely no truth in the report that is in circulation to the effect that he would leave Tennessee and locate in Kentucky. He will remain in Nashville regardless of adverse legislation to his business interests.

The report referred to in this dispatch was sent out of Lexington, Ky., last Sunday night and was extensively published in daily newspapers Monday morning. Lexington always was a rumor-breeding place, but lately so much untruth from that city has found its way into the papers that the accuracy of any statement bearing a Lexington date is apt to be questioned, even when published in the best newspapers. It is time the offending correspondents were made to quit it. There is a way.

SAM DOGGETT QUITS THE TURF.

New York, February 12.—Sam Doggett, who was formerly one of America's leading jockeys and who of late years has campaigned a small stable of horses, has quit the turf. He left today with his family for Denver, Col., where he will engage in the dry goods business with his brother.

CLOUDLIGHT TAKES THE HANDICAP.

Miller Rides Her Skillfully—Jockeys Graham and W. Kelly Get a Short Rest.

Oakland, Cal., February 12.—Cloudlight, ridden by Walter Miller, won the handicap at six furlongs today. The jockey's skill worked a marvelous improvement on the notoriously inconsistent mare. The actual running of this race was farcical in the extreme. Martinmas, Blagg and Tocolaw were all victims of unskillful jockeyship. The first named did not appear to be seriously extended at any stage of the journey. Miller finished second on Wool Sandals in the last race, after being unplaced on Captain Burnett, possibly the worst racer he ever rode in his whole career.

Two-thirds of the card, which was of average quality, was monopolized by outsiders, only two lukewarm favorites being successful, Adena in the first and Nigrette in the fifth. A. Brown put up a brilliant exhibition on the former.

Jockeys Graham and W. Kelly were each sus pended for three days by the starter for misbehavior at the post on Kokomo and Black Prince re spectively.

After the final declarations, fourteen horses remain in the Family Handicap. They are: Logistilla, Rapid Water, Dusty Miller, Dr. Leggo. Clamor, Voladay, Sir Edward, J. F. Donohue, Tartan, W. H. Carey, Nealon, Temaceo, John Lyle and Rubric.

WEIGHTS FOR THE GRAND NATIONAL

latest batch of exchanges from England brings the weights for the Grand National Steeple chase, which is to be run over the difficult Aintree course of about four miles and 856 yards at Liver pool, Friday, March 22. Prince Hatzfeldt's Ascetic's Silver, winner of last year's Grand National, has the place of honor with an impost of 175 pounds. The second and third positions in the weight allotare held by horses owned by Americans-Grant Hugh Browne's John M. P., at 170 pounds, and Thomas Clyde's Cinders at 164 pounds. Timothy Titus, owned by W. B. Partridge, a wealthy lumber-man whose home is in Wales, is also given 164 pounds and he is the present favorite for the race at 100 to 80. Next in order comes B. W. Parr's Aunt May, which finished third last year, and J. S. Morrison's Drumeree, an old stager over the Liverpool country, which was the last of the nine finishing the course in the race of 1906 and which is being trained by Sir C. Nugent in the same stable with John M. P. These two have been weighted at 163 pounds each. Roman Law, owned by A. Buckley, Jr., in Ireland and a starter last year, comes next with 161 pounds. George Faber's Ranunculus has 159 pounds and C. Hibbert's Red Lad, which finished second last year, has been assigned 157 pounds. Twenty-five names further down the list is found Foxhall Keene's Prophet III., with 144 pounds. This horse with John M. P. and Cinders make up the sum total of American representation and, notwithstanding the comment of some English critics, it would seem that we have better than a poor chance of fetching the trophy across the pond.

John M. P. is no stranger here. Mr. Brown brought him over after the running of the Grand National, in which he fell, last summer and he made four starts on this side of the water. He won the Inaugural Steeplechase and then captured the Great Antumn, the two netting his owner $11,600. He fell in the Westbury, which was won by Balzac, and raced so poorly in the Champion that he was pulled up. He had clearly tailed off. He was sent back to England in the fall along with Desert Chief, a pronounced failure here, though considered a sterling jumper on the other side. Reports from England are to the effect that John M. P. is doing nicely.

We have recently heard much of Mr. Clyde's finders. She has been winning steadily and is a Cinders. She has been winning steadily and is a wonderfully good jumper. She is a six-year-old and this is to be her first attempt in the Grand National. There is a well-founded prejudice in England against first-time-outers at Aintree since in the history of the race only four horses have won at the first attempt—The Soarer in 1896, Drogheda in 1898, Shannon Lass in 1902, and Morfoa in 1904.

A comparison of last year's imposts with those allotted for the forthcoming contest will reveal that much, and also serve to show upon what very different terms Ascetic's Silver meets those who then finished behind him:

Last Year's
Position. Horse.	1906.	1907.
1Ascetic's Silver	149	175
2Red Lad	142	157
3 Aunt May	156	163
4Crautacaun		153
5 Wolf's Folly		152
6Oatlands	139	148
7Gladiator	135	146
9 Drumcree		163

0 Roman Law		161
0 Timothy Titus	152	164
0Buckaway II	144	144
0Pierre	133	136

From the above comparative table it will be seen that the weights for this year's Grand National are framed upon about a ten pound higher scale, and a little study of those weights reveals that Drumcree is not at all badly in. Drumcree is now thirteen years old. He was second to Grudon in 1901, ran seventh in 1902, and won under 157 pounds in 1903, but did not again contest the Grand National until last year, when he was ninth. While Timothy Titus is the favorite, Drumcree has a strong following as

Father and Son to Again Ride in Austria—
Shaw, Maher and Lyne Book Passage.

New York, February 12.—It is difficult to believe that Fred Taral has been twenty-five years a jockey. Yet such is a fact. He is now a little more than forty years old, yet looks about the same as he did fifteen years ago, with his well-set, square shoulders, his clear eye and his quick, energetic strides, a typical American jockey. With his son John he will depart for Austria Saturday next where both are to ride for Baron Springer. In one race last year the boy beat the father by a head.

Taral's last races in America were in 1900. Then he went abroad, where, in Austria and Hungary, he has led the winning jockeys for four of the six years that he has been there. In one of the other two years Harry Lewis, also an American, beat

Fred will have a mount at Lincoln in the Bathyany Handicap, which is among the first races run on the English turf. Bon Marche, "the Austrian Roseben," according to all accounts, is well in at Lincoln at 119 pounds. In one race in his own country Bon Marche carried 149 pounds and won at six furlongs.

"I really believe I have ridden more races than any man alive," said Taral today, as he played billiards in Maurice Daly's rooms. "Years ago reports of the races were published without jockeys' names. My employers, the Labold Brothers, wrote to the turf papers at that time and said that their jockey, Taral, was one of the best in the west, but the reports failed to credit him with many successors.

"The difference between the old countries and this is that when a jockey riding there earns $10 he keeps $9 and spends $1." continued Taral, "whereas in America there are so many temptations the jockey who has money coming to him at the end of the season is lucky. There is one good plan in Austria. The jockey's fees are left in the hands of the Jockey Club until the end of the season, and in at least one case a jockey's money was saved for him for six months."

Taral thinks Miller a good rider in short races,

Taral thinks Miller a good rider in short races, but does not think he would hold his own against our best riders in long races. He saw some racing in November. Little Johnny Taral noticed how wide the jockeys let their horses run out on the turn. The little fellow said: "I wish they would do that in Austria; I would have a cinch in coming through on the rail."

"In the days of Garrison, Fitzpatrick, Hayward, McLaughlin, Spellman, Murphy, Blaylock and others of that class," said Taral, "you could not get through on the rail on the stretch turn. They formed a solid wall in front of you and you had to beat them from the head of the homestretch if you were to win at all."

Taral's best chum as a boy was Charles Curtis, a fellow jockey, who is now United States Senator from Kansas. Mr. Curtis as a jockey rode old Taxgatherer, a well known selling plater of the eighties, which was trained by "Suip" Donovan, the man who later on trained Tenny for Dave Pulsifer.

Taral agrees with Danny Maher that the English horses are better than American as a class. They are shipped from place to place so often in a month's racing that they must be naturally hardy horses, Taral argued.

Shaw will sail for Germany February 26, to do the riding for Weinberg Brothers. He will take along a lightweight boy named Korb. Maher and Lyne sail for England it is understood sometime before March 1. Harry Spencer will leave for France, "Mickey" Miles for Austria, and Birkenruth for the same country. "Skeets" Martin also will ride in Austria this year. In a letter to James Villepigue, Tommy Burns, who is now in France, confirms the report that he will ride in Germany. Hoar and Winkfield will ride in Russia. Taral was the most popular jockey on the American turf for many years, and he is no less so in Austria. For an alleged offense last year he was about to be fined by the Austrian stewards, but the public so strongly condemned the officials that the was not imposed. In this country Taral won the Brooklyn Handicap three years—on Diablo in 1893, on Dr. Rice in 1894 and on Sir Walter in 1896. He won the Brooklyn, Metropolitan and Suburban Handicaps in one year, 1894, something no other jockey has yet done. He rode Domino in all his great races, winning the Futurity in 1893 with him, making a dead heat with Dobbins in the match which followed the Futurity, and in the following year making a dead heat on Domino in his match with Henry of Navarre at Gravesend, after having won the match between Domino and Clifford at Sheepshead Bay.

TAB TILEING FOR DERBYS.

HIS REX HANDICAP VICTORY CON-

Gresham Disqualified and Jack Martin Suspended—Alverby Is Destroyed—Banner Crowd at City Park.

New Orleans, La., February 12.—The crowd at City Park this afternoon taxed the capacity of the plant. There was not even standing room in the spacious grandstand. The overflow made themselves as comfortable as possible on the lawns and in the paddock enclosure. For an eighth of a mile up the homestretch some of the enthusiastic ones found a resting place on the outside rail. It was a banner day for the new club. The fine weather and fast track drew out the full quota of regulars and they were augmented by a large number of visitors who are here from the north participating in the Mardi Gras festivities.

The feature race, the Rex Handicap, for threeyear-olds and up, at a mile and a furlong and worth $2,940 to the winner, proved easy of complishment for James McCormick's Tileing. last time out Tileing was asked to give away too much weight, but today he thoroughly convinced everyone that he ranks with the best three-year-olds that have been racing here. He demonstrated that he can run fast and go far whether the track be heavy or fast and those interested in the two Derbys to be run here next month had better take Tileing's chances seriously if they would pick the winner in either of these two important winter fixtures. Peter Sterling was the runner-up. Lady Navarre, good mare that she is, was beaten a length for second place. Ohiyesa was added by the Brown stable, evidently with the intention of forcing fast early pace and racing Tileing into exhaus tion. The mare ran well for seven furlongs and quit.

The two-year-old race, which had thirteen starters, ended with a disqualification and the death of a horse. Gresham and Princess Sue were the two leaders from the start and they fought it out all of the last quarter. As they passed the judges Gresham's advantage was so small that it was impossible to tell which had won until Gresham's number was flashed, but on a complaint of foul by Mitchell, who rode Princess Sue, the race was taken from Gresham and first place given to the daughter of Bendoran. Martin, finding that Gresham could not shake the filly off, repeatedly bumped her, and at the end was carrying her to the outside. Martin was suspended for six racing days for his foul riding.

Shortly after the start in the shuffle for positions, Alverby, belonging to W. F. Schulte and making her first start, stumbled and fell. She broke one of her forelegs and had to be destroyed. Mr. Schulte was much affected by the death of his filly. He said she had worked faster than any horse he had ever owned and that he would not have taken $5,000 for her. Fanny Willoughby, the dam, herself was raced by Mr. Schulte and won a number of purses for him.

The steeplechase furnished one of the best contests run through the field this winter, the finish finding Uncle James, Incantation and Henry A. Schroeder fighting it out heads and necks apart in the order named.

UNSATISFACTORY RACING AT ASCOT.

Josie's Jewel Shocks the Talent and Judges Investigate Theo Case's Running.

Los Angeles, Cal., February 12.—The card today was made up entirely of selling races, bringing the worst of horses here to the post. Naturally there was little enthusiasm. Josie's Jewel shocked the talent by easily taking the second race from a field of sprinters. The fourth race was marred by the miserable showing made by Theo Case, incompetently ridden by A. Wright. Judge Hamilton did not like the race and had the jockey and the owner up in the stand for an explanation. He has the case under advisement, but as the horse is in poor condition and somewhat stiff and sore there will likely be no action taken. Expedient cut one of his tendons in his last race and may never be sent to the post again.

LYNE IS LIKED IN ENGLAND.

That Lucien Lyne will be cordially welcomed on his return to England is evident from the following from a paragraph in London Sporting Life: "This clever jockey was over here in 1903 under a retainer from Mr. J. R. Keene. He made himself very popular during his stay, not only with his confreres, but with all who came in contact with him. He rode many fine finishes. In the course of the season he had 299 mounts, was placed first on forty-five occasions, second sixty-seven times, and third thirty-seven times."

BROODMARE RETURNS IN ENGLAND.

The broodmare returns for 1906 in England show that 1,418 thoroughbred colts and 1,381 fillies were foaled, 1,153 mares were barren, 117 slipped foals, 198 were not mated in the preceding year, 77 were put to half-breed sires, 257 died, and 201 were sent abroad, while 274 were put out of the stud or had had no return made. These figures amount to a total of 5,076 mares accounted for.

WINNING UNDER DIFFICULTIES

"Do you remember the fast sprinter I had named Chinaman?" asked George Van Gorden of one of his old-time friends at Los Angeles recently. "Yes, very well," replied the friend. "Well, the most exciting time of my life was over a match race I had on with this horse," said Mr.

Van Gorden. "I matched Chinaman against a mare belonging to a lot of Mexicans for $1,500 a side. A thousand dollars was up on each side, and the remaining $500 was to be put up in the stakeholder's hands the day of the race. Each side picked a judge and the two judges picked a third—an utter stranger. The Mexicans seemed to be holding off to the last minute, but that was only a blind. They put up all right. Two separate tracks had been built for the horses to run over-the old-time style, side by side-and the race was to be run on the top-and-bot tom plan.

The Greasers had dug four or five holes in China man's track the night before, filled them with water and put grass over the top, so that it looked all right. The mare got away about a foot in advance of my horse, which ran past her in a twinkling, but stumbled in one of the holes and dropped back. He'd get up to the mare again and make another stumble. Finally they got near the finish, and I thought the mare beat Chinaman about half a neck, but the judges decided they had passed the winning post on even terms, and as the mare of the Mexicans had gotten away a foot in front. I was given the race. Immediately guns and knives were drawn, and looked bad for us Americans, for we were greatly

"I shall never forget how a big Texan got up and shouted that he wasn't afraid of all the Mexicans they could pack in the valley, and his brave air seemed to scare the backers of the mare and all their friends, for they put up their cannons and toothpicks, and bloodshed was averted. Chinaman, given a fair deal, would have beaten the mare with ease—in fact, he was the fastest horse at sprinting on the coast in those days. That third judge, the stranger, was certainly a trump and, strange to say, I have never learned his name nor caught sight of him since."

Winner—Ch. f, by Mazagan—Sister Juliet (trained by J. S. Hawkins).
Went to post at 2:16. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same.
Mary Talbot, away on the inside, ran into a long lead at once and, maintaining her speed well under energetic handling, had a little in reserve at the end. Hasty Agnes was a sharp factor all the way and stood the final drive game'y. Onda suffered from slight interference soon after the start and had to weave her way through on the stretch turn, finished fast and would have been second in a few more strides. Extry showed speed, but tired in the stretch. Katherine Murphy ceased to be a contender after going a quarter. Brocade ran poorly. OHCPS AWt PP St 1/4 1/2 3/4 Str Fin Jockeys Ind Horses Owners

Went to post at 2:45. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third the same.

B. J. Swanner evidently outclassed the others, was away running and won all the way with plenty by reserve. Kuropatkin, a close contender in the early stages, fell back, then came fast near the end and outgamed Billy Paterson in the closing strides. Billy Paterson was in close quarters most of the trip and ran fairly well. Bandillo quit after going a good half. Marco closed a big gap from a poor beginning. Scratched—J. J. McC., 113.

Winner—B. f, by Ballyhoo Bey—Wannakee (trained by E. Cromwell).

Went to post at 3:17. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Kankakee, well handled and reserved in the early stages, moved up resolutely after going a half and, standing a hard drive well, just lasted long enough. Woolstartle, probably best, suffered from much interference and was kept in a pocket most of the way, but finished fast when clear and barely failed to get up in time. Dulweber, a sharp factor all the way, lasted better than expected and put up a good performance. Ballad came from a long way back and finished with a rush. Theodocia had a rough trip and can do better. Jack Bratton showed the most speed for a half before tiring. Jim Simpson also showed a good performance. Dolph quit in the last furlong.

Overweights—Dulweber, 1 pound.

Won driving; second and third the same, Merrick, hard ridden, was in close pursuit of the leaders in the early stages, dashed into the lead on the stretch turn and held the others safe, winning well in hand. Bonebreak ran a good race and finished with a rush. Potter tired after showing the most speed for five furlongs. Lucullus, away poorly, closed a big gap and ran a winning race. Alsono had no mishaps and can do nuch better. King Wilda was excessively used in the first half, causing him to tire at the end. Bendigo was caught in a jam at the start and was practically left. #### GOOD RACING INVESTMENTS.

Among the horses that were sold by auction as yearlings in 1905 to race as two-year-olds in 1906 there were many good investments and some bargains, as will be attested by the following list. which gives the name of the horse, its price as a yearling, the amount of its winnings as a two-yearold and the money earned above the original cost. To get at the net profits, of course, an estimate for training, shipping, etc., must be made:
